NUMB. 2041.

MONDAY, JANUARY 4. 1742.

7/10 2041.

Since our last arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Petersbourg, Dec. 19. N. S.

Commission is appointed to enquire into the Conduct of the Count de Munich, and all the other Persons that are under Arrest. The Count d'Osterman's Family that is with him in the Fortrefs consists of no less than eighteen Persons; two of his Secretaries are also apprehended, and all his Papers of which there's a great Number in Cyphers re- to the secret Engagements into which he was en- with a certain Court of Germany. Some very im- Discoveries have also been made in the Papers of the-Marshal Count de Munich; and 'tis even said has been found among them the Copy of the Or- given to Capt. Kuttler, for seizing the Papers of the Sinclair. They actually talk of sending for that back from Siberia. The Empress has order'd process against the Counts d'Osterman and Munich finish'd before she sets out for Moscow, where she is to be in the Month of February. The Princes and Michael Dolgorucki, who had been Prisoners, at Schliesselbourg and the other in a Castle at Nerva, since the cruel Execution of their Parents at Novo- in 1739, have been at Court to thank her Impe- rialty for their Liberty. Her Expressions to them exceeding kind, and she has restor'd them both to former Honours: She has moreover settled a con- siderable Pension on the Princess Catherine Dolgorucki, who was betroth'd to the Czar Peter II. and is now retir'd from that Convent where she thought of spending the Remainder of her Life. The Officers of the Army have been employ'd for several Days in taking Inventory of the valuable Furniture and immense Wealth, that in the Palaces of the Munich and Oster- man Families, and those of their Adherents, the For- tune of which will amount to prodigious Sums; as may easily be conceiv'd, if it be consider'd that the Army and Grandeur introduc'd at Court in the Reign of the Empress Anne, were greater than at the most flourish'd Court in all Europe. The Empress has, in the same time, actually sequester'd the Revenues of the Count de Munich in Ingermania, Livonia, and Esthonia, which brought him in 620000 Rubles a Year.

Prague, Dec. 15. N. S. The Village of Krumpholtz, on the Frontiers of Moravia, being of great importance to the Saxon Troops, they sent one Capt. von to take Possession of it, with 140 Grenadiers; Yesterday at Break of Day two Hungarian Generals advanc'd thither with 3000 Dragoons and Hussars; the Captain by a Trumpeter to surrender, the return'd Answer that he would defend it to the last; whereupon the Village was instantly invested, Merin summon'd by a second Trumpeter to sur- render; but the Answer he made was, that if they sent a third, he should have such a Shot that he would be able to go back and tell who gave it. Then Dragoons dismounted, and with the Hussars began to attack, and set Fire to the Village. Capt. Merin with his Grenadiers to a Farm-house, where he defended himself with very great Courage and Conduct, till the Hungarians Fire for two Hours, while the Village was in Flames on each Side of him. But at last he was reliev'd by one Regiment, and a Battalion of Hussars, whereupon the Hungarians fled to a Wood, leaving lost 12 or 13 Men that were kill'd on the Spot, and left several Waggons full of Wounded Men; but the brave Captain's Baggage was burnt.

Letters of the 15th ult. O. S. from Stockholm say, it has been resolv'd in the Senate to re-assemble the States of the Kingdom, in order to have their Advice about the Peace with Russia, and the Settlement of the Suc- cession.

Those of the 16th from Vienna say, the Queen of Hungary was not at all daunted, when she heard of the King of Sardinia's Resolution to assert his Pretensions to the Duchy of Milan; and that she had receiv'd Advice from the Great Duke, that he had repais'd the Moldaw with his Army, to attack the Enemy; but we hear they retire as fast as he advances.

The new King of Bohemia, who goes by the Name of the Count de Fugger, having paid a Visit to the King and Queen of Poland, and all the Royal Family, at Dreden, set out with a triple Salvo of the Cannon from the Ramparts, and on the 20th ult. arriv'd at Munich.

The King of Prussia's Brother Prince William, was to be marry'd to the Princess Louisa-Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbottle as last Tuesday at Berlin.

The Marshal de Belle-Isle arriv'd on Christmas Eve at Francfort from Prague.

A Fire broke out on the 9th ult. at Riga in Livonia, by which only three Houses were burnt; but there being Gunpowder in the House where it began, the Win- dows and Roofs of other Houses were damag'd, some Persons kill'd, and several wounded.

The Letters from Italy say, 'tis reported that 4000 Piedmontese Soldiers had actually taken Possession of Milan; and that the Spanish General, the Duke de Mon- temar, had demanded Passage for a Part of his Army thro' Tuscany.

There are other Letters from Vienna which say the Russian Minister there has deliver'd a Letter to the Queen from the Empress, notifying her Accession to the Throne; and that he assur'd her that the Empress intended to cul- tivate the good Harmony that had subsisted between her Predecessors and their Allies, and that this Event would cause no Alteration in the Political System at the Court of Russia.

Those of the 22d ult. from Berlin say the King of Prussia had receiv'd an Express from his General the Veit Marshal de Schwerin, with Advice that his Troops made themselves Masters of Olmutz, the Capital of Moravia on the 15th ult; and that his Majesty is resolv'd to have a new Palace at Berlin, which, according to the Plan of it, will be one of the most stately in Europe, besides several other Structures for the Academy of Sciences, &c.

The French King has made his Minister here a Count, by the Title of the Count de Bully.

The States of Languedoc have sent the King their cu- stomary Present of Sheep from the River Ganges in Ben- gal.

'Tis said that the Duke of Modena is included in the Treaty of Alliance which the King of Sardinia has con- cluded with the French and Spaniards; 'tis certain how- ever that he has a Minister both at Paris and Madrid.

The Cardinal de Fleury was observ'd to be more than ordinary gay upon Perusal of the Dispatches from the Marquis de la Chetardie the French Minister at Peters- bourg.

'Tis said that a Treaty is negotiating between the Courts of Denmark and Hanover for the reciprocal Guar- ranty of their Dominions.

The Duke Anthony Ulric of Brunswic Lunenburg, the Princess Anne his Wife late Regent of Muscovy, and the Prince Lewis his Brother, are expected this Month at Berlin from Petersbourg, together with their Son the Prince Iwan, but their Highnesses will be incog.

This is the Day that was fix'd for the Marriage of the eldest Princess Palatine to the Duke of Sultzbach at Duf- feldorp, where, 'tis said, he is at the same time to be proclaim'd Hereditary Duke of the Dominions of Berg and Juliers.

On Saturday Night last about Ten o'Clock the Corps of the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wills, late Colonel of the First Regiment of Foot-Guards, and Lieutenant-Gen- eral of the Ordnance, was (after lying in State in the Je- rusalem-Chamber) interr'd in the North Isle in West- minster-Abbey.

His Pall was supported by Six General Officers, and all the Officers of the First Regiment attended the Corps. The Ceremony was perform'd by the Bishop of Ro- chester.

'Tis remarkable that the Grave-digger, in digging the Grave, took out a prodigious large Broad-sword, sup- posed to have lain there many Years, being very rusty.

On Saturday last died, aged Ninety, at her House in Stretton-street, St. James's, Mrs. Lloyd, said to have died worth 70000 l.

The same Day died in Lisle-street the Lady Anne Hervey.

The same Day died in an advanced Age the Lady Skipwith, Relics of Sir Thomas Skipwith, Bart. and Mother to Sir George Skipwith, Bart. She was de- scended from King Henry VII.

And her Corps is to be interr'd in King Henry the Seventh's Chapel in Westminster-Abbey.

Also the same Day died at her House in Piccadilly the Lady of Dr. Aspingwall, late one of the Prebends of Westminster-Abbey, and Sub-Dean of his Majesty's Chapel Royal.

PARALYTICON, seu Anima Nervorum
A stupendous Chymical Effence, which infallibly cures the Palsy, and all other Nervous DISEASES:

THE very first Dose of it (a few Drops only) instantly penetrates the inmost Recesses of the Nerves, and darting almost as quick as Lightning thro' the Human System, diffuses kindly Warmth and general Comfort to the weakened Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords instant sensible Relief in the most obstinate Palsy, and all Paralytic seeds, Shaking, Trembling, Numbness, Deadness, and Weakness, whether universal, or of particular Parts only, or whether contracted, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very first Dose makes an apparent diminition of the continuing of it for a short Time as surely accomplishes a perfect Cure, not only of the most grievous Palsy or Relaxation of the Nerves, but also of their Cramp-like Contractions, Stiffness of the Sinews, and all other Nervous Complaints wherever, that in Persons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether induced by preceding Illnesses, fast Living, hard Drinking, Courses of Physick, great Colds, or excessive Fatigues of Mind or Body.

Words cannot sufficiently express the uncommon, the unparallel'd Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it frankly acknowledge; and its vastly superior Excellency to all other Remedies, be more securely rely'd on, for the absolute Cure of the Palsy, all Paralytic Effects and Nervous Indispositions, than the Celestial Cortex is for Intermittents.

It rectifies all Disorders of the first Passages, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, enriches the Blood, restores the Vigour and Steady Use of the Limbs, and strengthens the Joints, Muscles, Tendons, Ligaments, and whole Habit to an immense Degree.

It is also very pleasant to take, is comforting and cordial to the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to the youngest Infant.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment at Mr. Radcliffe's Dispensary, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions as follows.
